Reasons for applying for accommodation

Please note the following:

- Single accommodation is limited and it is BISA's prerogative to approve or not approve this application. There is a surcharge for single accommodation. Please see the fee structure for more information.
- First semester residence fees are payable upon the day of registration and the second semester fees are due on the first day of class of the second semester.
- Failure to pay on time may result in BISA requiring the student to vacate the residence.
- Students must be willing to share accommodation if required.
